Dear Mr. and Mrs. Johnson,

How are you? I am doing well, and I hope to see you the next time I'm home.

I want to bring you up to date on what is happening in my life. As you know, I'm a student at The Baldamer School of Comedy. While here, I have been active with Campus Crusade for Christ, a student Christian ministry. As a Christian, my highest priority has been to grow in my relationship with the Lord, and my involvement with Campus Crusade has been incredibly helpful.

This December I have a special opportunity to attend a conference in Greensboro sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ. This conference features some excellent speakers and is designed to allow me to grow in deeper in my walk with God and learn how to share Christ with others. It lasts four days and I'm sure it will be life-changing for me.

In order to attend, I need to develop a financial sponsorship team: a group of people who will help me attend the conference.

My total need is $350 (including registration, food, transportation, etc.). Would you prayerfully consider making an investment of $50, $75 or $100 toward helping me reach my goal?

I have enclosed a stamped, self-addressed envelope to speed your reply to me. If the Lord leads you to help, please make your gift check out to "Campus Crusade for Christ." Of course, all gifts are tax deductible.

I will give you a call in a week to see what you have decided. I can answer any questions you may have then.

I appreciate your friendship, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson. Thank you for considering what your role might be in helping make this conference a reality for me.

Sincerely,
